Application for Housing Assistance

Use this form to apply for social housing assistance in New South Wales

About social housing assistance in NSW

Social housing assistance includes:
- social housing (including public housing, Aboriginal housing and community housing)
- help with setting up and/or maintaining a tenancy in the private market
- temporary accommodation if you are homeless

Social housing assistance in NSW is provided by the Department of Communities and Justice (DCJ) and community housing providers, including Aboriginal community housing providers. Most social housing providers participate in Housing Pathways.

What is Housing Pathways?

Housing Pathways is the way applications for social housing assistance are processed in NSW. You only have to fill in the application form once and you can apply through any Housing Pathways social housing provider across NSW. For a full list of Housing Pathways social housing providers, go to www.housingpathways.nsw.gov.au.

How do I apply for social housing assistance?

Use this form to apply for all types of social housing assistance. You can also use this form if you are a tenant of a Housing Pathways social housing provider and you want to apply for a transfer or other housing assistance.

How to fill in this form

To fill in this form:
1. read each question carefully
2. answer all the questions
3. print your answers, using a black or blue pen
4. if you need more space, please write on a blank page and attach it to the application
5. provide all relevant documents that support your application.

The questions that we need evidence for are marked on the form with [ ]. Information about the type of evidence we need is in the Evidence Requirements Information Sheet. If you did not receive an Evidence Requirements Information Sheet with this application, please ask for one from your nearest Housing Pathways social housing provider, or download it from the Housing Pathways website at www.housingpathways.nsw.gov.au.

Help to fill in this form

If you need help to fill in this form, if you need an interpreter or if the reasons you are seeking assistance are too sensitive to write down, ask a staff member to help you. If there is one available, you can ask to see a male or female officer, and/or you can also ask for an Aboriginal officer.

Where do I lodge this form?

You can lodge this form with any Housing Pathways social housing provider across NSW, either in person or by mail. For a list of their contact details, go to www.housingpathways.nsw.gov.au.

What happens next?

Your application will be assessed and you will be notified of the outcome in writing. You may be contacted if further information about your application is needed.

What if I am homeless?

If you have nowhere safe to stay tonight contact the Link2home service (freecall) 1800 152 152 for assistance with overnight accommodation or visit a Housing Pathways social housing provider.

For more information

For more information about applying for social housing assistance and whether you are eligible, see the Housing Pathways website at www.housingpathways.nsw.gov.au or phone 1800 422 322, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

It is illegal for anyone working for DCJ or a community housing provider to ask for money or favours or other benefits of any kind in exchange for helping you with your housing needs. It is also illegal for you or anyone else to offer money or favours or other benefits of any kind to anyone who works for DCJ or a community housing provider for helping you. If you have any information regarding possible corrupt conduct you can report it by calling 1800 422 322.

32. DCJ Privacy Notice
This privacy notice applies to the Department of Communities and Justice (DCJ) which includes the following entities: the Land and Housing Corporation and the Aboriginal Housing Office. DCJ and its related entities comply with NSW privacy legislation when collecting and managing personal and health information. The information we collect from you or from an authorised third party will be held by DCJ or the entity that collects it. It will be used to deliver services and to meet our legal responsibilities. We may also use your information within DCJ as a whole to plan, coordinate and improve the way we provide services. DCJ is also legally authorised to disclose information to outside bodies in certain circumstances.

Further information about your privacy rights can be found on the Department's website: www.facs.nsw.gov.au/site_information/privacy or by calling: 02 9377 6000.

Notice and Declarations
Under the Housing Act 2001 a fine of up to $2,200 and/or three months imprisonment applies for making a false statement or representation. Anyone who wilfully makes any false statements that result in them obtaining accommodation or other financial benefit of any kind may be refused further assistance by social housing providers or prosecuted.

Notice: Your personal information and any relevant health information provided on this form will be exchanged between social housing providers (public, community and Aboriginal housing) for the purpose of assessing your continuing eligibility for social housing and providing an appropriate service. DCJ may also collect information from your former social housing landlord or their agent (if you have one), including information about any debt.

Declaration
- I understand the instructions given on this application.
- To the best of my knowledge, the information provided in this application is correct.
- I understand there are penalties for giving false or misleading information.
- I understand and agree that DCJ may collect information from my former social housing landlord or their agent, including information about any debt.
- I consent to the personal and medical information I have provided in this application, and which is stored in DCJ’ records, being shared with other social housing providers so that appropriate services can be identified and delivered.

A3. List the income of each additional person aged 18 years and over.

You are required to list each type of income received by each person. If your partner is under 18 years of age, list their income.

Note: Income includes pension payments (including overseas pension), allowances, child support payments, wages, casual earnings, income from self-employment, regular insurance payments, interest from the bank, interest from investments, income from property ownership, etc.

If any of the additional persons receives a Centrelink benefit, they can include their details on the Income Confirmation Scheme (ICS) Consent Authority on page 16 of this form or on a separate community housing income confirmation form. By signing the ICS Authority, they give permission for DCJ to contact Centrelink to check their income and they will not need to provide any further evidence of their Centrelink payment.

See item 8 on the Evidence Requirements Information Sheet for details.

Income Confirmation Scheme Consent

If you or anyone on this application wish to participate in the Centrelink Income Confirmation Scheme please complete the consent form below.

This consent will be used for the sole purpose of authorising Centrelink to provide information to DCJ Housing to assess your eligibility for our services. If you do not allow Centrelink to provide your information to us electronically, you will need to obtain this information from Centrelink yourself and provide it to us.

Please read and sign the consent and the declaration below:

- I authorise DCJ Housing to use Centrelink Confirmation eServices to perform an enquiry of my Centrelink Customer details in order to determine if I qualify for a DCJ Housing service.
- I authorise Centrelink to provide the results of that enquiry to DCJ Housing.
- I understand that Centrelink will disclose my personal information including my name, address, payment type, payment status, income, assets, one-off payments, deductions and shared care arrangements to DCJ Housing who will use this information to confirm my eligibility for DCJ Housing services.
- I understand that this consent, once signed, remains valid while I am a customer of DCJ Housing unless I withdraw it by contacting DCJ Housing or Centrelink.

More information about the Centrelink Confirmation eServices is available from a Centrelink office or on Centrelink’s website at www.humanservices.gov.au.

Important:

Please ensure that you advise DCJ Housing in writing within 28 days of any changes to the occupants of the household, or any changes to the income or assets of any person in the household. This is required even if you have given Income Confirmation Scheme consent, or told Centrelink.

Interpreting Services

If you need help with interpreting or translation because English is not your first language, phone the All Graduates Interpreting and Translating Service on 1300 652 488. They will phone the social housing provider and interpret for you for free.
