Appointment of members to the Council by the Governor of NSW

Her Excellency, the Honourable Margaret Beazley AO QC, Governor of NSW, has, after a thorough process, appointed five members to serve on the Disability Council NSW.

The Council is the official advisory body to the NSW Government on matters related to disability, and is comprised of members with a broad range of expertise, skills and knowledge. This appointment will bring added diversity to the Council, complementing and enhancing the experience and expertise of those already in place.

The three new members and two reappointed to the Council for a three year term are:

- Ms Carolyn Campbell-McLean, member
- Dr Jill Duncan, member
- Ms Donna Purcell, member
- Mr Jake Fing, member (reappointed)
- Mr Paul Zeller, member (reappointed)

More information about the Disability Council NSW and all of its members can be accessed at the Council's website.
