DCJ Privacy Notice

This privacy notice applies to the Department of Communities and Justice (DCJ) which includes the following entities: the Land and Housing Corporation and the Aboriginal Housing Office. DCJ and its related entities comply with NSW privacy legislation when collecting and managing personal and health information. The information we collect from you or from an authorised third party will be held by DCJ or the entity that collects it. It will be used to deliver services and to meet our legal responsibilities. We may also use your information within DCJ as a whole to plan, coordinate and improve the way we provide services. DCJ is also legally authorised to disclose information to outside bodies in certain circumstances.

Further information about your privacy rights can be found on the Department's website: <https://www.dcj.nsw.gov.au/statements/privacy.html> or by calling: 02 9377 6000.

Notice and Declarations

Under the Housing Act 2001 a fine of up to $2,200 and/or three months imprisonment applies for making a false statement or representation. Anyone who willfully makes any false statements that result in them obtaining accommodation or other financial benefit of any kind may be refused further assistance by social housing providers or prosecuted.

Notice: Your personal information and any relevant health information provided on this form will be exchanged between social housing providers (public, community and Aboriginal housing) for the purpose of assessing your continuing eligibility for social housing and providing an appropriate service. DCJ may also collect information from your former social housing landlord or their agent (if you have one), including information about any debt.

Declaration

- I understand the instructions given on this application.
- To the best of my knowledge, the information provided in this application is correct.
- I understand there are penalties for giving false or misleading information.
- I understand that this information is used by all social housing providers (public, community and Aboriginal housing).
- I understand and agree that DCJ may collect information from my former social housing landlord or their agent, including information about any debt.
