Use this form to apply for a transfer to another social housing property (including public housing and community housing) or to exchange properties with another public housing tenant.

What is this form about?

This form is a supplement to the Application for Housing Assistance. It asks questions about your situation and the property you are in now. Your application will be assessed on the information given to us on these forms and at an interview, if you have one.

What is the difference between Transfer and Mutual Exchange?

You may apply for a Transfer to another property if your existing home is no longer suitable. If you are eligible for a Transfer, you will be added to the social housing register while you wait for a suitable home to become available.

Mutual Exchange is a swap of homes between tenants. All public housing tenants can apply for a Mutual Exchange as long as they meet the eligibility criteria.

How to fill in this form

To fill in this form:
1. read each question carefully
2. answer all the questions
3. print your answers, using a black or blue pen
4. if you need more space, please write on a blank page and attach it to the application
5. provide documents that support your application.

The questions that we need evidence for are marked on the form with . Information about the type of evidence we need is in the Evidence Requirements Information Sheet. If you did not receive an Evidence Requirements Information Sheet with this application, please ask for one from your nearest Housing Pathways social housing provider, or download it from www.facs.nsw.gov.au.

Please note: before we can assess your Transfer or Mutual Exchange, you will need to complete the Application for Housing Assistance, as well as provide all the evidence requested.

Help to fill in this form

If you need help to fill in this form, if you need an interpreter or if the reasons you are seeking assistance are too sensitive to write down, ask a staff member to help you. If there is one available, you can ask to see a male or female officer, and/or you can also ask for an Aboriginal officer.

Where do I lodge this form?

You can lodge this form with any Housing Pathways social housing provider across NSW, either in person or by mail. For a list of their contact details, go to www.facs.nsw.gov.au.

What happens next?

Your application will be assessed and you will be notified of the outcome in writing. You may be contacted if further information about your application is needed.

What if I am homeless?

If you have nowhere safe to stay tonight contact the Link2home service (freecall) 1800 152 152 for assistance with overnight accommodation or visit a Housing Pathways social housing provider.

For more information

For more information about applying for social housing assistance and whether you are eligible, see www.facs.nsw.gov.au or phone 1800 422 322, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

It is illegal for anyone working for DCJ or a community housing provider to ask for money or favours or other benefits of any kind in exchange for helping you with your housing needs. It is also illegal for you or anyone else to offer money or favours or other benefits of any kind to anyone who works for DCJ or a community housing provider for helping you. If you have any information regarding possible corrupt conduct you can report it by calling 1800 422 322.

Information for Mutual Exchange applicants
If you are approved for Mutual Exchange, DCJ will send a letter with your name, application reference number, address and phone number to other tenants matched by the computer system to your property so they can contact you.

A Mutual Exchange Register, listing your property details and phone number, will be available to other tenants at DCJ local offices. Your name and address will not be listed. Tenants may look at this Register to find a suitable swap and may make contact with you to talk about swapping homes. If you do not give us a phone number, your address will be provided by staff to tenants interested in swapping with you, if they ask for it.

T19. I understand that DCJ will give the information I provide on this form that relates to exchanging my property (including my name, address and phone number) to other tenants interested in Mutual Exchange.
- Yes
- No

if no - your application cannot be registered for Mutual Exchange
T20. DCJ Privacy Notice
This privacy notice applies to the Department of Communities and Justice (DCJ) which includes the following entities: the Land and Housing Corporation and the Aboriginal Housing Office. DCJ and its related entities comply with NSW privacy legislation when collecting and managing personal and health information. The information we collect from you or from an authorised third party will be held by DCJ or the entity that collects it. It will be used to deliver services and to meet our legal responsibilities. We may also use your information within DCJ as a whole to plan, coordinate and improve the way we provide services. DCJ is also legally authorised to disclose information to outside bodies in certain circumstances.

Further information about your privacy rights can be found on the DCJ website: www.facs.nsw.gov.au/site_information/privacy or by calling: 02 9377 6000.

Notice and Declarations
Under the Housing Act 2001 a fine of up to $2,200 and/or three months imprisonment applies for making a false statement or representation. Anyone who wilfully makes any false statements that result in them obtaining accommodation or other financial benefit of any kind may be refused further assistance by social housing providers or prosecuted.

Notice: Your personal information and any relevant health information provided on this form will be exchanged between social housing providers (public, community and Aboriginal housing) for the purpose of assessing your continuing eligibility for social housing and providing an appropriate service. DCJ may also collect information from your former social housing landlord or their agent (if you have one), including information about any debt.

Declaration
- I understand the instructions given on this application.
- To the best of my knowledge, the information provided in this application is correct.
- I understand there are penalties for giving false or misleading information.
- I understand and agree that DCJ may collect information from my former social housing landlord or their agent, including information about any debt.
- I consent to the personal and medical information I have provided in this application, and which is stored in DCJ’ records, being shared with other social housing providers so that appropriate services can be identified and delivered.
