DCJ Privacy Notice

This notice outlines how the Department of Communities and Justice (DCJ) collects, uses, stores and discloses your personal and or health information in accordance with the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW) (PPIP Act) and the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 (NSW) (HRIP Act).

DCJ collects personal and or health information from time to time in connection with your application for housing services or during your tenancy for the purposes of assessing and processing your application for housing assistance and or administering your tenancy.

We may also collect information to provide you with support services, related to your tenancy or as a client of DCJ. This information may be collected from:

- you directly
- individuals who are visiting or residing at the same residential address as you
- · members of the public
- Community Housing Providers
- · your authorised representatives
- other third parties, for example medical practitioners
- other NSW or Commonwealth government agencies (as permitted by law).

This information is held by DCJ, and where relevant Community Housing Providers. The information held relates to services provided to you, including the details you provide in this document and information in other documentation completed or provided by or on your behalf, and it also relates to information you provide to our staff or Community Housing Providers (for example, during your public housing tenancy sign-up process).

DCJ may also use your information for data analytics, data matching and data integration on DCJ's Federated Analytics Platform (FAP). In addition to the use of your information on the FAP, this information will also support policymaking, program and service planning, delivery of targeted services for clients, program evaluation, monitoring and reporting, research and resource planning. We may also use your information within DCJ to plan, coordinate and improve the way we provide services. This includes use of the information by companies contracted by DCJ, for example, for the purposes of determining client satisfaction and related long-term service enhancement.

Intended recipients of your personal and or health information include those involved in the above activities, as well as any others who may have a lawful interest in considering your application or tenancy, including where relevant the:

- DCJ
- Aboriginal Housing Office
- Community Housing Providers
